

Call for Expressions of Interest: Externally Funded Fellowships

Bridging Divides supports externally funded postdoctoral fellowship applications to host top-quality researchers

Bridging Divides (BD) invites top-quality researchers working in the broader area of migration and integration studies to submit an expression of interest for externally funded fellowships to be hosted by one of Bridging Divides academic partner institutions.

Selected candidates will receive support from Bridging Divides in preparing and applying to the externally funded postdoctoral fellowship of their choice. If successful, those candidates will be hosted by Bridging Divides at Toronto Metropolitan University. Fellowships may also be hosted by a BD partner institution: Concordia University, University of Alberta or the University of British Columbia.

BD welcomes applications under the following thematic calls:

- Immigrant Health and Well-Being
- Employment and Lifelong Learning
- Place and Infrastructure
- Citizenship and Participation

How to apply

Submit the following application package via this online form by June 20, 2024. The package needs to include:

- A concise CV (2-4 pages)
- A brief outline of a research proposal (1-2 pages)

Your research proposal should clearly articulate your intended study and its alignment with BD's thematic areas. Only a handful of applicants will be retained for further preparation of a submission to one of the schemes outlined on the website.

Please ensure that you meet all eligibility requirements for your preferred fellowship opportunity.
