Territory Sales
Representative - PepsiCo
JOSEPH MILOSEVSKI

At PepsiCo, I embraced the idea that education is a lifelong journey. I actively sought opportunities to learn and grow, connecting with talented professionals within the company. Their valuable advice, both job-specific and general career guidance, was willingly shared and eagerly absorbed. This knowledge was then applied to my work, fostering personal and professional development.

During my Work Term, my primary contribution at PepsiCo was building strong client relationships. As the sole representative, I engaged directly with store managers, playing a pivotal role in our product success. I cultivated a positive rapport with all the managers, facilitating smooth business interactions. These relationship-building skills yielded remarkable results, with our products exceeding PepsiCo's sales target.
