Introducing the Top Co-op Employer Awards

This past month, the Ted Rogers School of Management proudly unveiled its Top Co-op Employer Awards—a dynamic annual celebration of the organizations fueling the success of our students and tomorrow’s leaders.

These awards spotlight the remarkable companies that have gone above and beyond to empower Ted Rogers Co-op students with real-world, career-defining opportunities.

Thanks to each one of our employer partners, students have collectively earned over $160M, since 2017.

Drawing from student work terms reports and employer engagement data, we have identified a select group of Co-op employers making a true difference in the lives of our students.

In this inaugural year only, we also celebrate our Top Legacy Employers—those who have stood by us from the beginning, hiring students for more than 100 Co-op work terms.
